

POLICY AND PROCEDURES
BODYCENTRIC HEALING ARTS

APPOINTMENT TIME: We endeavor to provide the highest quality service possible. Please arrive at your scheduled time. This will allow for maximum relaxation and treatment. Arriving late will result in a shorter appointment. This time is designated for you and payment for the scheduled time is required at the time of service. Cash and checks are accepted, as well as Visa, Mastercard, and Discover.

LATE CANCELLATION, MISSED APPOINTMENT/NO SHOW
48-HOUR NOTICE IS REQUIRED. Payment in full will be expected for any cancellation with less than 24 hours notice.

HEALTH UPDATE: Massage and Bodywork is provided for your healthcare needs. Please keep us informed regularly of changes in your medical condition and profile. Clear and honest communication is essential as well as confidential.

ETHICS: We provide services within the scope of A.B.M.P. definition of massage, bodywork, somatic therapies, and the boundaries of our training. We will not employ those techniques for which we have not had adequate training and shall represent our education, training, qualifications, and abilities honestly.

Behavior of a sexual nature will not be tolerated. Any implication, remarks, or advances will result in termination of the session. Payment for the scheduled appointment will be expected.

I understand and agree to the policies and procedures listed above.

Client's Signature

Date

Practitioner's Signature

Date